Fashion Keeps a society lively through different new styles and subsequent changes.

Fashion promotes social changes from time to time and also respects traditions and customs in society.

And while looking attractive surely is one of the main things why people are so drawn to stylling and fashion trends, aesthetics are not the only advantage of knowing how to dress well.

Of course appearance is important , but fashion also helps individuals feel confident in their own skin

Disadvantages:

From struggling designers to fast fashion controversies , the problems in the fashion industry are enough to make even the most experienced of fashion veterans want to throw in the towel.

Whether you're a fashion designer or just love clothes , there's no denying that the fashion sector can be a tough one to navigate . But understanding these issues is the first step to being a savvy designer or conscious consumer.

Fast fashion creates a waste problem.The use of harmful chemicals is increased.
